COUNTY FAIR

The general flavor of the County Fair is to retain a country “grass roots” atmosphere. In recent years, the County Fair has become one of Chattanooga’s premier free events. One of the most frequently heard comments each year is how great the food is. This year we anticipate that it will be even better! Selection of vendors will be based on developing a proper balance of food items to appeal to all tastes. Held at Chester Frost Park on Lake Chickamauga, the beautiful setting lends itself perfectly to the nostalgic theme of the fair. To get to Chester Frost Park, travel north of Chattanooga to Hixson, Tennessee and follow the signs to the park. Traveling from I-75, take Highway 153 to Hixson Pike North.

Traveling from I-24, take Highway 27 North to Thrasher Pike, turn right on Thrasher Pike and follow it until it ends. Take a left on Hixson Pike, take a quick right onto Gold Point Circle. This will take you to the park.
